CANCELLATION OF REGISTRATION

Students who register for classes and do not attend must cancel their classes online. Failure to do so will result in awarded financial aid being applied to the student's account, and the student receiving a grade of "F" in each course.

All students must be aware of Georgia Tech's policies and processes regarding Verification of Participation.